19H SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 12 AUGUST 2018 - YEAR B, VOL 2 - PAGE 117

Personal prayer is always going to remain simple. Do we believe that many words are needed in praying? No. There are times when just a few words, often awkward ones, are quite enough to entrust everything to God, our fears and our hopes.

In prayer, we are enabled to sense that we are never truly alone: the Holy Spirit sustains within us a communion with God, not just for one moment, but on into that life that has no end.

Praying does not remove us from the world's preoccupations. On the contrary, nothing is more responsible than praying: the more we live a very simple, very humble prayer, the more we are brought to love and to express that by our lives. Brother Roger of Taizé

CARE UK (REFUGEE AID NW).

Are preparing to send out the next container, No. 38, to the Refugee camps in Greece. Winter clothing, blankets, tents, push chairs/buggies, food and hygiene products. Containers cost £3.5k to send, but are packed with about £50k's worth of your donations.

Our Patron Faisal Roshid MP is running the English half marathon on 16 September and is donating his sponsorship money to Care UK and St Rocco's Hospice. He has supported our charity from the outset. Please support him if you can. Contact Pauline and Austin - 07718974503.
